

UDPS Committee Meeting

May 2, 2018

- Welcome and Introductions
- News and Updates
- MHA for First Hill
- University St PRAP Overview
- First Hill Park Update
- Other Business

News and Updates

News and Updates

- > The 9th Ave. Pedestrian Pathway in Yesler Terrace is complete.
- > The Batik (123 Broadway) is now leasing.

News and Updates

- > Updated plans call for 311 affordable units, up from 303. Construction is anticipated for 2020.
- > First affordable housing high-rise in 50 years

MHA for First Hill

University Street PRAP Updates

- 1 25' street with 18' travel lane and 7' parking lane throughout
- 2 Painted and textured crosswalks
- 3 Traffic calming to reinforce 20 mph speed limit
- 4 Additional trees of similar species to fill canopy
- 5 Install bike and pedestrian improvements to existing signals, including curbside bike push buttons on NE/SW corners, pedestrian countdown intervals and pedestrian signal revisions

A

 - open space

 - sidewalk

 - crossing

 - amenities

-  Existing Street Trees
-  Proposed Street Trees
-  Active Zones
-  Existing Streetlights
-  Existing Pedestrian Streetlights
-  Proposed Pedestrian Streetlights

6 22' street at intersection throughout

7 Active zones, located adjacent to appropriate land use

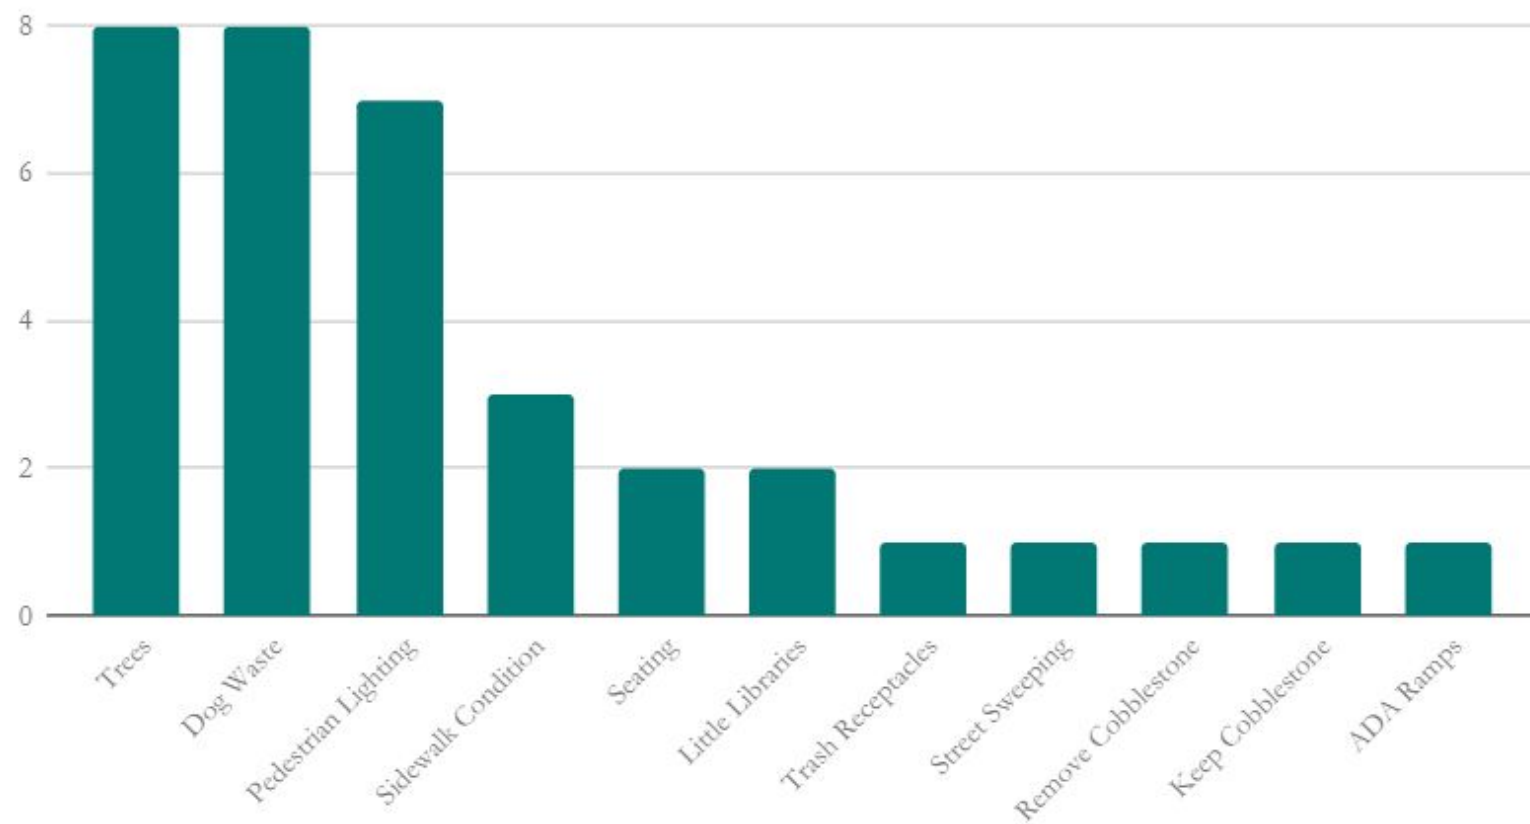

8 Traffic calming to reinforce 20 mph speed limit

9 Enhanced landscape and extended sidewalk plantings

10 Pedestrian street lights, located throughout

11 ADA accessible elements consistent throughout street

8th Ave Community Priorities

What else would make University Street a great street?

*Examples: Benches, Bike Racks, Dog Waste
Station, Free Little Library, Pedestrian
Lighting, Public Art, Trash, Trees, Wayfinding*

First Hill Park Update

News!

- Swedish MC ready to release funds
- Steering Committee meeting Friday
 - Close funding gap & public art process
 - Bring recommendation to the Board

New Business

May 2nd - Sound Transit Midtown Neighborhood
Forum @ 5:30pm

May 8th - FHIA Public Hearing

May 12th- First Hill Spring Clean

June 6th - UDPS Committee @ 1pm

June 7th - First Hill Fidos
